

Did you know that there is no one else in the whole world quite like you?

Have a look and listen to this great song.

What I am.

Draw a picture or make a list with your grown up of all the things that are special about you. You might need a lot of paper as I have a feeling that there's going to be a lot of things!

And always remember that:

You are amazing. You are special. You are unique.

You belong. ♥
